HOW TO MAKE COFFEE

THERE ARE MANY WAYS, AND CON-

NOISSEURS DIFFER IN TASTES.

A Delicious Berry That Is Much Abused by American Cooks Who Do Not Know Its

Possibilities—Some Recipes Which Are

Not Widely Used or Known.

Have you ever passed a place where a person was making coffee and inhaled a wandering breeze of the delicious, inspiring fragrance? Every cup of coffee that is drunk should smell and taste just like that fragrant odor, which was the veritable soul of the berry seeking to escape from its transmutation into liquid. Unless you can arrest that slippery sylph of opulent fragrance or prevent the entire escape from your coffee-pot before serving you are no expert, but a bungler.

The amount of badly made coffee that is inhaled on the public is simply enormous. One connoisseur says that there are not 30 places in New York, outside of private houses, where a first rate cup of coffee can be counted on. Another man about town says this is a gross exaggeration, declaring that no man is sure of a fine cup of coffee in more than half a dozen places in this city. Coffee, to be fit for civilized drinking, should be made, he asserts, on the principle of "little and often." Size in art is of all sizes, and bulk in coffee making runs the risk of a dreadful discount in the appreciation of the brewed.

The best kind of coffee pot is one that has a filter. They can be had of many sizes and shapes, all the way from simplicity to an extreme of elegance.

To secure a good infusion quickly the ground coffee should be placed in the cylinder on top of the coffee pot, the strainer should be pressed down on top of the coffee, and the boiling water should be poured over so that the infusion runs slowly. While it filters the pot ought to stand in a vessel containing very hot water, so that the infusion may keep a high degree of heat without allowing it to boil. Boiling is the spoiling of coffee.

If you are making coffee for a good many, take 1½ pounds of Java, 1½ of Maraicao, a pound of Mocha and 7 gallons of water. The Mocha, which is meant for the aroma or bouquet, should have been but slightly roasted; the Mar-caicao, which is for color, should be well roasted, and the Java, which is for body and effect, should be roasted just between the two.

Cafe a la Turque is made in a peculiar way and only appreciated by peculiar people. The recipe for its composition is this: Take Java and Mocha in equal proportions; grind and pass through a very fine sieve. Put ordinary black coffee, as many cups as needed, in a coffee pot, and for each cup add a teaspoonful of the sifted coffee and a lump of sugar. Boil this for two minutes; then take it off and pour in a little cold water to settle it. After it has stood a few minutes serve it with powdered sugar.

Iced coffee, in New York style, is merely cafe noir that has been cooled in a china freezer by placing ice around it, slightly salted. For what is called mixed coffee a pint of milk, a gill of cream, a gill of sirup and a quart of black coffee subjected to the same cooling process and served when just this side of freezing is considered a proper paper by all who are not real coffee connoisseurs.

Café coffee is prepared by some in the same way—a gill of brandy and 6 ounces of sugar to the quart of coffee taking the place of the other ingredients. But brandy coffee to most persons means a cup of cafe noir, over which a spoonful of brandy, poured on a lump of sugar, has been burnt. Just as the blue fringed golden flame is extinging the spoon should slip into the coffee, and after one definite stir the contents of the cup should slide down the gladstone throat.

A sherbet of coffee is quite fashionable now and quite delicious if properly made. To a quart of coffee add a quart of double cream and 12 ounces of sugar, and if you wish to be very chic add a few drops of vanilla essence. Then put this in a freezer with salted ice surrounding, keep the sides free as fast as the ice begins to cling, and when it has reached congelation serve in glasses.

Another fashion of coffee drinking, which was first introduced into this country by the Mexicans at the New Orleans exposition 10 years ago, and which is held in high esteem by some bon vivants, is to make coffee in the French way without boiling and then mix it with the very richest chocolate, half and half, or one to two, or two to one, the second proportion being perhaps the most frequent. This is to be served with whipped cream topped with a little sugar dust. The Mexicans used to use the Socanosco chocolate, which is made with a cinnamon addition and is rich beyond description.

In spite of the injunction about gild-ing refined gold or painting the lily, restless humanity has attempted to improve on coffee in worse ways than by marrying it to chocolate. For instance, take cafe au Kirsch, which is made by thickening black coffee, cracked ice and Kirsch wasser in proportions to suit the taste. By devotees of the benign Arabian berry this is considered a profanation and eschewed accordingly, but for physical and mental depression, if one is not a habitual coffee drinker, it is a pick me up of rare potency.

Coffee is not a food, but a stimulant and an antidote against some kinds of poisoning. Its excessive use produces a trembling of the hands and a disease of the optic nerves. To keep one awake and to help one endure fatigue or ex-posure to rough weather there is, probably no equal to coffee, except possibly the cacao plant of the Peruvians. Coffee and tobacco—which we owe to the Arab and the Indian—are the heavily swining in the eyes of every true bolshian. But, like all blessings, they may become a curse.—New York World.

POLITICAL BOSSISM.

Captain Blennerhasset, who assailed Colonel Burns in the Republican State Convention at Sacramento, is lecturing in San Francisco on "political bossism." He had a large and enthusiastic audience at Metropolitan Hall and he scored Burns unmercifully. He said when the San Francisco delegation went to the Republican State Convention they simply recorded the previously determined action of Boss Burns. Burns when county clerk of Yolo, was a defaulter to the amount of $2,500. When he was Secretary of State, there was a defalcation in his office, which was admitted by Reynolds, a deputy of Burns. The Speaker asked if the people were prepared to be saddled and ridden by Daniel M. Burns?

Blennerhasset next turned his attention to Buckley, the Democratic boss, but now acting with Burns. Buckley had been driven from California by the Wallace Grand Jury, but to-day he is next to Burns, the real leader of the Republican party. Buckley gave Burns the names of the men to be nominated at the Republican State Convention and those names were put on the ticket. Blennerhasset gave the names of men who were offered anything they wanted in the way of office by Buckley if they would support Burns in the State Convention. He pointed out many of the evils of bossism in California and exposed the rottenness of the two old parties. Burns and Buckley, one a Republican and the other a Democratic boss, arrange states together and agree upon the snare of the spoils which each shall receive. They care nothing for principle, in fact there is no such word in their vocabulary, and while pretending to be opposed to each other, are in reality working together and control the patronage of the State of California, and City of San Francisco, whether the Administration is Democratic or Republican.

CARSON &amp; COLORADO RAILROAD.

California dispatches say it is learned from a reliable source that the Carson & Colorado railway is to be extended south to Mohave probably within a year. The road is now completed from Mound House to Keeler leaving a gap of 125 miles to Mohave. D. O. Mills, one of the principal owners, says he is only waiting to see how the English syndicate progresses with its irrigation canal. If they make ashewing that indicates good faith he will rush the construction of the road. The canal which, commences twelve miles from Independence, is intended to convey water to Indian Wells to irrigate about 400,000 acres of rich land. It is being constructed by a London company and about eighteen miles of the ditch is partially completed.

Should the Carson and Colorado Railway be extended to Mohave it would be of great advantage to this part of Nevada. It would make Reno a competitive point and give it some of the advantages now possessed by Sacramento. It seems unaccountable that the Carson and Colorado road should be run into the desert and stopped, when its extension 125 miles beyond its present terminus would connect it with roads running east to the Missouri, and west to the Pacific.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

The primary election yesterday created considerable of a stir in town. There were two or three tickets in the field, all made up of men of more than average intelligence and respectability; in fact, many of the names on all the tickets were the same. There was considerable rustling by some of the men whose names were on both tickets, while others paid no attention to the matter, satisfied that a good delegation would be elected in any event. As the pledge to voters only obligated them to support the county ticket, Silver party and People's party adherents participated in the election. It is said that different tickets were put in the field for the purpose of getting out the voters and that in consequence a heavy vote was polled.

It now remains for the convention, which meets next Thursday, to nominate an exceptionally good ticket, which will command the respect of every taxpayer and voter at the polls on election day.

REPUBLICAN FOLLY.

Astute Republican leaders are deploring the short-sightedness of the Republican press of Nevada. They say their party papers have been foolishly encouraging the Democrats to put a ticket in the field and now that they have done so they see the folly of their course. It has been evident for some time to observing people that a large majority of the Cleveland Democrats, if they had no ticket in the field, would support the Republican nominees. The few hundred votes which they would poll would help the Republicans to that extent and while it would not insure the election of a candidate on the Republican ticket, every little helps. As it now is they say every iron-clad Democrat, who believes in Clevelandism, will vote the Democratic ticket and deprive the Republicans of so many votes.

The Republican county convention yesterday acted upon the JOURNAL's suggestion and pledged its legislative nominees to vote for a bill to prohibit public officials from traveling on railroad passes.

BRECKENRIDGE DEFEATED.

The Women in Politics and a Victory for Their Candidate.

LEXINGTON, September 15.—No election or other occasion ever caused such a general suspension of business as the contest between Owens and Breckenridge and C. E. Settle for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Seventh, better known as Ashland District. For months the district has been agitated in a most bitter manner. It was not a political nor even a factional fight; it was a moral contest for weeks and months and during the last few days it has become intensely personal. Col. Breckenridge was fighting for life, and he never before made speeches or displayed such overwhelming ability in organization. He marched every man that he could command, but he could not command the women. They had no votes, but they were the controlling element in the fight. At Owens' headquarters to-night they claim 2,000 plurality. The ladies could not get the ward workers to their prayer meetings or other meetings, but their organization of committees of one generally got promises at home out of voters who needed no watching on entering the booths. With the saloons closed, the women praying and the best influences all aroused, there was a quiet election, with the excitement and bitter feeling at their highest pitch. The greatest surprise of the day was the good order everywhere. There were some personal encounters, but not as many as is usual at elections.

As many of the precincts are at long distances from telegraph offices, complete returns will likely not be known before morning, but Owens seems to be so much in the lead that it will not require complete returns to settle the result.

LEXINGTON, Ky., September 15.—The Daily Transcript announces that partial returns from Congressional primaries indicate Owens victorious over Breckenridge by one thousand majority. There was a bitter fight in every precinct.

An Anniversary at Oklahoma.

ENID, O. T., September 15.—The first anniversary of the opening of the Cherokee strip was celebrated to-day with all the distinguished persons of Oklahoma present. The features of the occasion was an exact reproduction of the original race for townships, the prize to the winner being a lot valued at $2,000. Fifteen thousand people participated in the race, but the real contest was between 4,000 horsemen including Indians and cowboys. It was the most wonderful race, with systematic entries on record. The prize lot was reached simultaneously by a Cherokee Indian and a Kansas cowboy named Parks. These two will ride the same horses again to-morrow for the purpose of deciding the race. The distance is four miles.

A Great Race.

NEW YORK, September 15.—The great race between Domino and Henry of Navarre resulted in a dead heat. Betting was 1 to 2 against Domino and 7 to 5 against Navarre. Riley Grannan hung out 3 to 5 on Domino and soon had more business than he could attend to. Three bets of $10,000 and three of $5,000 each were made and when the betting closed he had taken in $106,000 on which he stood to lose $63,000. Both horses were under whip and spur at the finish and neither could gain an inch.

The time for the mile and an eighth was 1:55½. The owners divided the purse and the race was not run off.

A Minister Held Up by Footpads. PASO ROBLES, Calif., September 15.—Rev. Carruthers, pastor of the M. E. Church at San Miguel, while visiting here last night was held up by two footpads and robbed of twenty-four dollars. The robbers beat the preacher unmercifully.

Democrats Meet in Salt Lake. SALT LAKE, September 15.—The Territorial Democratic Convention met to-day. The platform indorses Cleveland's administration and demands the free coinage of silver.

A Large Suit Brought. NEW YORK, September 15.—Attorneys for John Quincy Adams have brought suit against Russell Sage and the heirs of the late Jay Gould asking for an accounting of $11,000,000 worth of railroad bonds.

Burglars at Woodland. WOODLAND, September 15.—Burglars made a raid here last night. Three residences and a hardware store were pillaged.

A Prisoner Escapes. SUSANVILLE, Calif., September 15.—George Sylvester, wanted in Stockton for crime, broke jail to-day.

The S. P. Co. Doing a Good Business.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 15.—The Southern Pacific company is doing little construction work this fall. There is a small force of men at work on the extension of the coast line in San Luis Obispo county.

Freight Agent Smurr of the Southern Pacific says the east-bound movement of freight is heavy. A large portion of the traffic consists of consignments of fruit to eastern markets. The prices for fruit are not so good as might be desired in Chicago and New York, said Smurr, but there must be some profit in shipments and the extent of the traffic is so great that it will result in bringing a great amount of money into the State.

Breckenridge's Son Has a Scrap. LEXINGTON, September 15.—Desha Breckenridge, son of Col. Breckenridge, had a fight at the polls to-day with J. W. Peck, an Owens' man. Both men were badly scratched, but were separated before they had a chance to draw their pistols.

Caminetti's Declination Refused. SACRAMENTO, September 15.—The Second Congressional District Democratic Convention met here this afternoon. The convention refused, by a vote of 95 to 18, to accept the declination of Caminetti for Congressman. He was renominated by acclamation.

SARCASTIC.

The Republican convention indulged in some sarcasm yesterday. It adopted a resolution condemning personal favoritism in distributing patronage by the Board of County Commissioners.

Old residents of Washoe county, smiled when they heard this resolution and remarked that it was the most sarcastic, considering the record of the party in the county, ever introduced in a convention.

For Sheriff.

S. W. Upson announces himself in another column as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the decision of the People's party convention. Sylvan Upson is known to almost every man, woman and child in Washoe county. He served as Constable of Reno township for six years and as a competent and efficient officer during the three terms there is not the slightest question. He has established a reputation as a detective and is recognized as one of the clearest-headed officers in the country. If he is nominated he will endeavor to secure his election and promises to conduct the Sheriff's office in such a manner that no good reason will be found for complaint.

It should be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay street, Sharpshooter, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds; that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of la grippe, when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksfoot, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at S. J. M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Some years ago I hurt my leg, the injury leaving a sore which led to erysipelas. My sufferings were extreme, my leg from the knee to the ankle, being a solid sore, which began to extend to other parts of the body. After trying various remedies, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had finished the first bottle, experienced great relief. The second bottle effected a complete cure."
